

1 Rearrange the words in a–e to make sentences.

a to / this / people / appeal / elderly / might b for / be / ideal / children / this / would c interesting / people / are / younger / find / to / this / likely d an / attract / would / this / with / people / clothes / interest / in e this / might / lot / bring / a / young / in / of / families

2 Imagine that the History Museum in your town would like to introduce some new features to attract more visitors. Talk with a partner about what types of people these different ideas would appeal to.

Now decide which two ideas would be most successful in attracting new visitors.

3 Watch Christina and Paolo doing Part 3 of the Speaking paper. Number the questions Christina asks Paolo in the order you hear them.

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| a Now, what do you think about the concerts? | _____ |
| b I think nearly everyone will like this, don't you? | _____ |
| c Do you agree? | _____ |
| d Which one shall we start with? | 1 _____ |
| e Paolo, do you agree that might be one of the best two choices? | _____ |
| f It could be fun, don't you think? | _____ |

4 Answer the following questions:

a Who do you think did better in this part of the test? Why?

b Did Paolo and Christina reach an agreement in the second part of the test? What did they choose?

5 Work with a different partner and repeat Exercise 2. Try to improve your performance.

Don't forget!

- Develop your answers by giving reasons and examples for your opinion.
- Interact with your partner by asking them questions, listening and responding to their comments.
- In the second part of the task you do not have to agree with your partner when making your final decision.